TOWN OF DUNDEE CHARTER REVIEW COMMITTEE

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY REPORT

The Charter of the Town of Dundee, Florida (“Town Charter” or “Charter”) was adopted by the electors of the Town voting in referendum on November 1, 1977. Since the Charter’s adoption, the electors of the Town of Dundee have approved eighteen (18) ordinances amending the text of the Charter. The last amendment to the Town Charter was approved in 2014.

The 2021 Town of Dundee Charter Review Committee was empaneled by the Town Commission of the Town of Dundee, Florida, in an effort to continuously study the Charter’s text, provide modern input on the form of Town government, and present recommendations regarding any suggested amendments or revisions to the Town’s organic law.

The Committee met three (3) times and: (a) heard proposals and recommendations for amendment made by Town Staff and the Town Attorney’s Office; (b) received proposals and recommendations for amendment from its members; and (c) opened its meetings to the general public to receive discussion and comment from any interested citizen of the Town. As a result of its meetings and deliberations, the Committee has developed the following four (4) formal majority suggestions and proposals from the Committee to amend the Town Charter:

1. Compensation of Town Commission.

Section 3.04 of the Town Charter currently provides for staged implementation of any increase and/or change in the compensation of the members of the Town Commission. In the opinion of the Charter Review Committee, the compensation of all elected officials should be determined by the Town Commission and effective as to all members of the Town Commission upon approval by ordinance.

2. Vacancies: Forfeiture of Office, Filling of vacancies.

SB 90 (Effective Date July 1, 2021) amended the Florida Elections Code by removing and/or striking current law provisions addressing elective charter county or municipal office vacancies created by resignation. Depending on the remaining term of office, the governor of the State of Florida or special election are likely options for the filling of such vacancies. As there has been no judicial interpretation or otherwise regarding the issue, in the opinion of the Charter Review Committee, Section 3.07 of the Town Charter should be made subject to applicable Florida law.

3. Initiative and Referendum.

Section 3.09 of the Town Charter is currently inconsistent with prevailing Florida law. Section 163.3167(8) of the Florida Statutes generally prohibits the use of an initiative or referendum process for development orders, comprehensive plan amendments and map amendments “unless it is expressly authorized by specific language ... that was lawful and in effect on June 1, 2011.” § 163.3167(8)(b), Fla. Stat. (2021). See also Citizens for Responsible Growth v. City of St. Pete Bch., 940 So. 2d 1144 (Fla. 2d DCA 2006). In the opinion of the Charter Review Committee, Section 3.09(1)(a) of the Town Charter should be amended to provide that the general initiative and referendum process is made subject to applicable general law of the State of Florida.

4. Referendum required before closing certain streets.

Section 3.10 of the Town Charter currently requires a voter referendum before closing or vacating any boulevard or street around any lake within the Town of Dundee. The Florida Highlands Company Subdivision Plat was made and executed in February, 1911. Said plat established the Town of Dundee and was recorded in Plat Book 1, Page 87, of the public records in and for Polk County, Florida. In the opinion of the Charter Review Committee, Section 3.10 of the Town Charter does not allow the Town Commission to timely respond to the current real estate market and real estate market demands. As such, the Charter Review Committee recommends amending Section 3.10 to allow for the closing or vacation of said boulevards and streets by ordinance.

5. Additionally, the Charter Review Committee has one (1) formal suggestion for action by the Town Commission. The Charter Review Committee recommends the Town Commission request that the code editor, Municipal Code Corporation, make “text amendments” to the published Town Charter document to provide for gender neutral interpretation. Specifically, Section 4.02(c) of the Town Charter should be amended to provide for “town manager” rather than “his”.

Because four (4) suggestions would make substantive changes to the Town Charter, the Town Commission should submit them to the electors of the Town for referendum approval if they appear favorable and to be in order. This Final Report of the 2021 Town of Dundee Charter Review Committee was adopted unanimously by the Charter Review Committee. The officers and members of the Committee wish to express their sincerest gratitude to the Town Commission, and the citizens of the Town of Dundee, for their trust and confidence with this important activity.
